

Beneficiary instruction sheet

If you are the beneficiary of a 1Life policy read the instructions below for information on how to claim as well as answers to commonly asked questions about the claims process.

Understanding the cover

Life insurance pays out a lump sum in the event of the death of the insured (policy owner) to the policy's beneficiaries. The amount that will be paid out and the names of the nominated beneficiaries will be listed in the policy document.

Funeral insurance is paid out to the policy owner and/or beneficiaries to cover the funeral expenses of the deceased. As with life cover, the amount that will be paid and the names of the nominated beneficiaries will be listed in the policy document.

How to claim

1. You will need the ID number and/or 1Life policy number of the deceased
2. Contact the 1Life Claims department on 0860 10 51 96
3. Submit the necessary documents via fax 0860 10 57 67 or e-mail claims@1life.co.za
4. Some of the documents that will be needed:

- A completed claim form
- A certified copy of the death certificate of the deceased (for a life insurance or funeral cover claim)
- A certified copy of the deceased's and the beneficiaries' ID books (for a life insurance claim)
- Medical reports (depending on the nature of the claim)

Waiting for payment

Funeral cover claims will be paid out in 24 hours, only if all the correct documents are received.

Life insurance claims will take longer to finalise, depending on the nature of the claim. Although dependent on the life policy you have with 1Life you could have access to a R50 000 Pay Now Funeral benefit

Why are claims rejected

Waiting periods: in some cases, waiting periods may apply to a policy. For example, natural death is only covered after a 6-month waiting period on funeral cover policies. If the deceased dies of natural causes within 6 months after the policy was purchased, the claim will not be paid.

Non-payment: if policy premiums are not paid up, the claim might be rejected.

Non-disclosure: if the life assured withheld information when he or she bought the policy, the claim might be rejected. For example, if the life assured did not tell 1Life that they smoked and then died of a smoking-related illness. This highlights the importance of being honest with a provider when you take out any form of cover. You should also read your policy documents carefully and notify your provider if any details are incorrect.
